

The CVBC was founded in 1951 as a non-profit organisation offering practical help and advice to Venezuelan and British businesses wanting to develop bilateral trade relations. The Chamber offers a wide range of services to enable business and individuals to fulfil their professional objectives.

The Chamber is run by a Board of Directors which includes some of the most well known business personalities in the Anglo-Venezuelan community. The CVBC works in close cooperation with the British Embassy, the Venezuelan Embassy and the British Venezuelan Chamber of Commerce in London, and other UK Chambers of Commerce and Institutions.

SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE CVBC

BUSINESS CONTACTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

The Chamber provides a list of business contacts for Venezuelan and British companies and institutions seeking potential customers, distributors and importers in each country.

BUSINESS APPOINTMENTS

The CVBC is prepared to schedule business appointments for Venezuelan and British companies to help save time and optimize results.

BUSINESS NETWORKING

Development of High Profile Forums.

The CVBC's strength and autonomy make it a privileged business platform from which to organise breakfast and lunch business events aimed at specific and selected audiences.

These events are led by high profile experts from the private and public sectors, providing a chance for networking between members and the opportunity to hear talks from expert Venezuelan and British guest speakers on specific and topical business matters.

The CVBC also offers opportunities for its members to promote their services and products to other CVBC member companies on the CVBC website, through advertising, sponsorships and hyperlinks.

TRANSLATIONS

The CVBC offers both Spanish and English translation services for companies and people who need to present documents of a general, legal, commercial and financial nature.

ORGANISING EVENTS

The CVBC manages the tasks related to the preparation of member company events, such as seminars, conferences, symposiums, banquets and exhibitions.
